Ifeolu joined Burges & Burges after the election cycle in 2018, where he was a part of a successful Ohio Supreme Court campaign. He brings with him years of diverse experiences from previous political campaigns and non-profit organizations. He uses these experiences to provide a holistic approach to the research needs of our clients.

Ifeolu's background includes:

- Transformative work on local, federal, and statewide candidate and issue-based campaigns
- Increasing public education in the areas of mentorship, public health, infection prevention, and civil rights and liberties via various non-profit organizations
- Diversity, inclusion, and governmental relations work and advocacy at a public university

Ifeolu is a Shaker Heights native, and a lover of the arts and culture. He is a Miami University alum with Bachelors of Arts degrees in Political Science and Social Justice. Ifeolu chairs the Community & Social Action Committee of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity's Cleveland Alumni Chapter and is a member of several civic and Democratic organizations in the area. He appreciates the opportunity to learn from others who may think differently from himself.
